City of Sedalia: Trash and Recycling Collection Delays Due to Icy Road Conditions

Icy conditions have resulted in city trash and recycling collections running behind schedule on Feb. 6, 2019. City crews continue to work to collect trash and recycling, however they are working at a slower rate to ensure their safety and safety of the community as roadways, alleys and equipment are ice covered. The National Weather Service's forecast for the area includes additional icing overnight tonight, Feb. 6, 2019 and collection services are likely to run behind schedule on Thursday, Feb. 7, 2019.

Residents are asked to leave their trash and recycling carts at the curb or alley until emptied. City crews will be working to ensure all areas are picked up and collections may extend into Monday to ensure everyone receives collection service.

If you have questions about the trash or recycling services, please feel free to contact the Public Works Department at (660) 827-3000 ext. 1166.
