Public Newsletter for June 2016

Missouri Economic Research and Information Center

West Central Region Data

The West Central region consists of 13 counties and the historic towns of Sedalia, Warrensburg and Marshall. Its three major lakes – Truman, Stockton and Pomme de Terre – offer tranquility, while Whiteman Air Force Base, home of the B-2 Stealth bomber, offers protection. Top industries are retail trade, farming, manufacturing, construction, food services and federal/military.

Sedalia Animal Shelter Staff Pic

Sunny was the obvious choice for June's Shelter Staff pick; just look at that movie star quality! Sunny is a quiet young man who would love to be featured in outdoor adventures (just as long as he knows there are loving arms ready to cuddle him once when he returns home).

The annual Old Fashioned 4th of July Celebration will start with a parade in Downtown Sedalia at 10:00a.m.

Parade entries will be accepted until July 1, 2016. Please contact Pettis County Recorder of Deeds Barbara Clevenger at (660) 826-5000 extension 922 to sign up.

A picnic with games and music will then be held from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Centennial Park.
